Letting God’s Fruit Grow

Galatians 5:22-26

Last in the series Led by the Spirit of God

When Paul created this well-known list of Christian lifestyles, he built upon a teaching already established by Jesus in John 15. Branches cannot produce the fruit they are intended to grow without being well connected to the vine. After warning us to avoid the fruitless deeds of darkness in Galatians 5:19-21, Paul now encourages us to become three fruitful branches that draw life and strength from Jesus Christ.

1. The First Branch: Love, Joy, and Peace
2. The Second Branch: Patience, Kindness, and Goodness
3. The Third Branch: Faithfulness, Gentleness, and Self-control

When the Spirit leads, God destroys what is worthless and replaces it with fruit that will last. Isn’t that what we want? It’s time to decide to follow Jesus—no turning back!
